

DEEP-DIVE DIRECTORY

& OPPORTUNITIES TO ENGAGE

This Directory is a supplemental resource to Engage Together® Project reports for North Texas.

It includes a list of all organizations who provided additional details about their missions, websites, primary service areas, key community contact, and ways community members can help meet needs.

Engage Together Project for North Texas is made possible by a grant from the Adair Foundation, and is accomplished in collaboration with many partners, including especially the task force and coalition leadership working across North Texas: 5 Stones Task Force, C7 Human Trafficking Coalition, and the North Texas Coalition Against Human Trafficking. Additional local support and leadership for this project include Southern Methodist University's Office of Engaged Learning & SMU's Human Trafficking Data Research Project, Unbound Now, and The Net FW. National partners include Belmont University's Data Collaborative, Pomerol Partners and Qlik. Special thanks also to the National Human Trafficking Hotline and Dark Watch.

Learn more about each of these partners by going to the Project website at engagetgether.com/dfw.

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

NORTH TEXAS

This Directory is supplemental to the Engage Together project reports for 17 counties across North Texas, and is based on open-source and shared data gathered in 2024-2025.

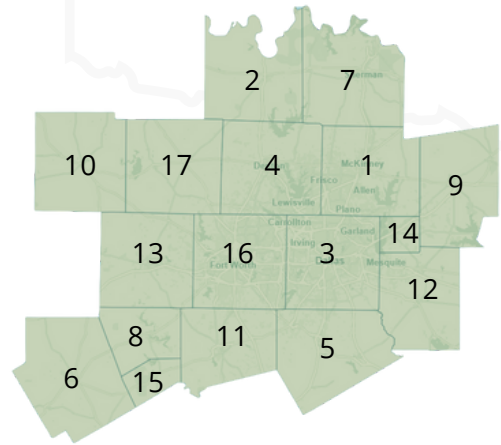

This Directory is arranged alphabetically and includes the 46 organizations working across North Texas who shared additional details on their work to directly address human trafficking and/or support at-risk populations, and opportunities the community can help.

The Volunteer Guide & Directory to Refugee Service Agencies in Dallas-Fort Worth

<https://dfwrefugeeguide.org>

Mission: The Volunteer Guide & Directory is designed to facilitate awareness about refugees in our community and their value as contributing members of society beyond their short-term needs upon arrival. Volunteers are referred to the resettlement agencies that assist refugees with housing, cultural orientation, ESL classes, job training, and employment. Additional categories of service providers assist asylum-seekers and victims of torture, and others are community-based agencies providing medical, mental health, and social services. Also included are agencies that provide support to survivors of domestic and international sex and labor trafficking. Community members may proactively contact, volunteer for, and donate to these agencies.

Program Areas: Prevention

Counties Served: Primarily Dallas, Collin, and Tarrant Counties, although some agencies on the Volunteer Guide serve wider areas of North Texas.

Community Contact: Linda Abramson Evans, Founder
(469) 233-4422 | Linda.Abramson.Evans@gmail.com

Opportunities to Help:

- Tangible Needs: Refugee resettlement service providers are most in need of furniture, small household appliances, and other supplies to outfit apartments for their clients on arrival. This can also apply to agencies that assist survivors of trafficking.
- Service Needs: Refugee resettlement and other service providers need volunteers to assist with various support activities such as mentorship, cultural orientation, and English conversation practice. Agencies that assist survivors of trafficking (both sex and labor trafficking, domestic as well as international) also need volunteers for support.
- Financial Needs: Refugee service providers, and service providers for survivors of trafficking, can always use financial contributions to support their programs and operational expenses.

Virgin Ministries & Counseling

<https://virginministries.com>

Mission: Virgin Ministries & Counseling, founded by Abigail Jordan, offers professional online counseling while actively educating churches and communities about human trafficking. In my public speaking, I share my personal testimony of being born into trafficking and recount how, at the age of five, I heard the Lord say, "Stand up in My name no matter what, and one day you will understand." That day of understanding has now arrived, and my mission is to be a voice for this generation.
